

Students will explain a concept with an example.

Students connect ideas and support their relationship with evidence.